Divisions

Pre-K: Coed, for parents and children to participate together.

- Must be 4 by Dec. 31, 2016. Six Saturdays beginning January 7.
- Saturday mornings for an hour, either 9am or 10am each week.
- This introductory program will teach basketball skills for children pre-k aged 4-5. The objective of the program is to aid parents who want to help their child to develop basic basketball skills, such as shooting, dribbling, defense, and agility that are needed to participate in organized basketball. The program is designed to teach parents & children the fundamentals of the sport while building the participants confidence. This cooperative program is open to children and parents/guardians who are able to attend six one hour sessions together.
- Registration includes one parent/guardian and one child. Limit 30 parent/child registrations.

Kindergarten: Coed teams play for an hour once a week on Saturdays.

- Register and be placed on a team, no evaluations. A coach will be in contact about first practice after Nov. 29 coaches meeting.
- Practices begin December 3, with game schedule beginning in January through the middle of March.

Grades 1 & 2: Boys & girls divisions.

- Play an hour once a week on Saturdays.
- Register and be placed on a team, no evaluations. A coach will call after coaches meeting on Nov. 29.
- Practices begin December 5, with game schedule beginning in January through the middle of March.

Grades 3 & 4: Boys & girls divisions. There is an option for the Quabbin Valley travel or in-town Skills league.

Quabbin Valley League

- This division will travel to towns such as South Hadley, Belchertown, Ludlow, Chicopee, Granby and others.
- Players must attend evaluations, see back page.
- Residents of Northampton, Florence, Leeds have priority until November 8. Non-residents registering after that date must attend school in Northampton, or must not have a Quabbin League team in their town of residence.
- Teams will play at least 10 games, stop time. Practices start in November, games are late December through February, with a jamboree in March.
- Teams play 2-3 times a week.

Skills League

- This division will play in Northampton only.
- We are planning for separate boys and girls divisions. If numbers don't allow for that, it will be coed.
- This division will play Saturdays and possibly 1 weeknight starting in November through the beginning of March.
- The players will work on their skills and basketball knowledge through drills and games to improve their game.
- Players will be broken up into teams as the season progresses to play games.

Grades 5 & 6, Grades 7 & 8 Boys and girls divisions. These divisions play in the Quabbin Valley League.

- Travel to towns such as South Hadley, Belchertown, Ludlow, Chicopee, Granby and others.
- Players must attend evaluations, see back page.
- Residents of Northampton, Florence, Leeds have priority until Nov. 8. Non-residents registering after that date must attend school in Northampton, or must not have a Quabbin League team in their town of residence.
- Teams will play at least 12 games, stop time. Practices start in November, games are late December through February, with a jamboree in March.
- Teams play 2-3 times a week.

For all leagues: All participants play in every game. Team shirts included in fee.
